FOODS CAN BE MADE PURE

The Way "Mother Used to Make"
Them May Cost More, But it

Washington Bureau of The La Crosse Tribune.

Washington, D. C., July 2.
The operations of the federal pure food law are plainly going to add still further to the cost of living in American homes.

How much the increase will be can only be estimated thus far. The manufacturers whose products and methods will require to be changed in order to comply with new regulations can only guess at the expense of the changes. But speaking broadly, the use of preservatives, coloring matter, etc., has made it possible to sell many staple articles to the public for less money than they can be sold when these are not used; and the privilege of disguising to some extent the actual contents of a package, by putting on it a label that told only half the truth or perhaps much less, made it possible to induce the public to consume much that it would not have taken had it known the truth.

Use of Preservatives
But take the single list of canned fruits and vegetables, pickles, preserves, jam, jellies, ketchups and the like. Coloring and preserving matters are used in all these. Some manufacturers indeed claim to produce them without preservatives; but the housewife who wants to know how much is saved by the privilege of using these things will be able to

ARE OPEN TILL NOON

MERCHANTS WILL NOT CLOSE ALL DAY

Decision Reached Because of Outsiders Coming In

Owing to the presence in La Crosse tomorrow of Barnum and Bailey's circus, La Crosse retail merchants have decided to break their customary holiday rule, and keep open untill noon, on account of the great number of farmers and people from surrounding towns who will visit the city for the purpose of attending the circus in the afternoon and making purchases in the forenoon. Almost all retailers have signified their intention of keeping open a half day.
The Retail Merchants association has taken no action in the matter, leaving it to the discretion of the members.

WANT MR. DAVIS TO STICK

Court Orders Him to Remain Within Jurisdiction Pending Perjury Investigation.

BOISE, July 3.—The defense announced this morning that it expects to complete its case before the night adjournment with the exception of the reading of the San Francisco depositions taken in examination of Moyer and Haywood. The twenty witnesses called to testify to conditions in Colorado will be excused.
Borah says a week or ten days will be required to hear rebuttal witnesses for the state.

Today's first witness was Francis of Sterling, California. He had desk room in Pettibone's office and declared he had seen no evidence of bomb-making there.

Court Holds Davis
The court ordered Bill Davis, at the suggestion of Borah, to remain within the jurisdiction of the court.
The prosecution intends trying to prove that Davis did not tell the truth when he testified that he did not participate in the blowing up of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mines.

ELEVATED LEAVES THE RAILS; PANIC

CHICAGO, July 3.—Midway of the rush hours yesterday afternoon a Metropolitan "L" train, with all five cars crowded, jumped the track at Jackson boulevard and Wabash avenue. As the train bumped over the ties for fifty feet, reeling as if it would plunge over into the street, passengers crowded to the platforms and persons below rushed in alarm from beneath the "L" structure.

The motorman, however, shut off the power promptly and the guard rail held firmly, preventing the train from leaving the elevated roadbed.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—

into the Fairbanks cocktail fight. He the cocktails were served at Fair-

DIDN'T BEAT BOARD BILL

Evidence Showed They Intended to Pay, But Were Suspected of Being Short Change Men

William Stack and John Linee, were today acquitted by Judge C. L.
Baldwin in county court of the charge of obtaining accommodations and board at the Bronson hotel with the intention to defraud. The defense introduced evidence to show that the two men who are traveling advertisers, left the hotel to go to Milwaukee after contracting a $12-50 bill at the hotel which they failed to pay when they left. They, however, left baggage at the hotel which the proprietor admitted was worth about $25.00 and wrote him upon their arrival at that city for their bill, which they promised to pay at once. Mr. Bronson said that he was satisfied with the security, and that he swore out the complaint on the instance of the police department who claimed that the men were the short change artists, who recently operated in La Crosse so successfully.

Attorney William F. Wolfe appeared for the defense and District Attorney Otto Bosshard for the state. The case against them, preferred by the police department, was nolled on motion of the district attorney.

ASKS QUIET AT CITY HOSPITALS

In pursuance to an order from Mayor W. A. Anderson, Chief of Police H. H. Byrne will take precaution tomorrow to see that explosives will not be used in the vicinity of hospitals or around residences where sickness exists. Anyone caught violating the order will be prosecuted.

THREATEN ARREST IN THE OLSON CASE

WITHROW SAYS HE WILL HAVE ATTORNEYS ARRESTED

FILES THE AFFIDAVITS TODAY

Lawyer for George Olson Promises Some Interesting Developments in Dye Works Litigation

After Judge Fruit of the circuit court disposes of the action brought by George E. Olson to have a receiver appointed for the New York Dye works, now in the possession of his wife, Mrs. Elnora Olson, further action will be taken by Attorney Frank E. Withrow, representing Olson, which will likely involve not only Mrs. Olson but in all probability will include attorneys in the case.
Mr. Withrow stated this morning that several arrests will be made after the case pending is disposed of.

The plaintiff has filed with Higbee & Higbee, attorneys for Mrs. Olson, affidavits which will be introduced in the hearing for the appointment of a receiver on Saturday. These affidavits come from officials, neighbors and others who witnessed the melee at the dye works a few days ago, and charge Mrs. Olson with causing the entire trouble and also allege that Jesse Higbee, her attorney, advised her to shoot anyone interfering with her.

The arrests have not been made yet for the reason, Mr. Withrow states, that whatever fine was imposed on Mrs. Olson would be paid out of her husband's own money.

Olson's Affidavit

George E. Olson in his affidavit averts that Mrs. Olson is expending his money; that she can neither read nor write and has torn up the books containing the business transactions so that no record exists of

"Booster" Buttons Will Be Hand-

Will Bring a Dollar.

"We are not going to have any cheap celluloid booster buttons for this campaign," said William Doerflinger today when discussing the meeting of the chairmen of booster committees held yesterday afternoon.
"Our buttons will be of metal and will be enamelled, similar to a lodge emblem, and will be something which every one will be proud to wear. They will not only be made up in buttons, but we have decided to put out Booster button cided upon.

"Concerning rewards for designs we have agreed to offer two. Five dollars in gold will be offered for the best design for a button, and five dollars will also be offered for the best phrase. The contest will close at Secretary Reid's office Saturday at 6 o'clock.

"We did not agree upon the price to be charged for them, as some of the members favored selling them for fifty cents and others thought that they should bring a dollar each.
I myself think that they should sell at a dollar. We decided that we will order 5,000 booster buttons for the first lot, and our subsequent orders will depend on the demand.

Yesterday's meeting was a spirited one and the greatest enthusiasm was shown by the committee.
All have gone into the work with great zeal, and many of them have

Aug. 7. Booster Day.

Wednesday, August 7th, will be Booster day. This was the date decided upon at the meeting, and efforts will be made to make it the greatest event in the history of La Crosse. W. E. Barber, chairman of the Booster day committee promised to write letters to Secretary William Taft, Governor John C. Johnson of Minnesota, William Jennings Bryan, and Senator Foraker inviting them to be present and deliver speeches on this date. Myrick park has been chosen as a picnic place instead of Pettibone park as the Myrick park is better equipped with band stand and buildings, also street railway accommodations.

Arrangements will be made with the railway company to run excursions into the city on this date, and the Acme Packet line will be requested to run two excursions to La Crosse on the river, the first from Lansing, Iowa, and another from Prairie du Chien, Wis., stopping at all intermediate points.

According to the plans made by the committee, this will allow just about a month for the button campaign. During this time it is thought that almost every citizen can be induced to buy a button and place himself on record as a booster for greater La Crosse.

Limb Peeled and Foot Was Like Raw Flesh—Had to Use Crutches, and Doctors Thought Amputation Necessary—Montreal Woman Writes of Cure Seven Years Ago.

BELIEVES LIFE SAVED BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I have been treated by doctors for twenty-five years for a bad case of eczema on my leg. They did their best, but failed to cure it. My doctor had advised me to have my leg cut off, but I said I would try the Cuticura Remedies first. He said, 'Try them if you like, but I do not think they will do any good.' At this time my leg was peeled from the knee, my foot was like a piece of raw flesh, and I had to walk on crutches. I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment, and a bottle of Cuticura Pills. After the first two treatments the swelling went down, and in two months my leg was cured and the new skin came on. The doctor could not believe his own eyes when he saw that Cuticura had cured me and said that he would use it for his own patients. I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap, three boxes of Ointment, and five bottles of Pills, and I have now been cured over seven years, and but for the Cuticura Remedies I might have lost my life. I have lots of grandchildren, and they are frequent users of Cuticura, and I always recommend it to the many people whose business brings to my house every day. GOPHERS WIN IN A GREAT GAME

ETHIOPIANS TAKE PITCHERS' BATTLE BY SCORE OF 1 TO 0

BEST CONTEST OF SEASON

"Pink" Hawley in Fine Form While J. Davis Allows Champs Only One Scratch Hit

Those dusky hued Ethiopians, known as the St. Paul Gophers, proved themselves demons of the ball field at League park yesterday; in fact the white molar sons of Africa put up the finest game of ball seen here this year and got the decision 1 to 0. J. Davis, the willowy leather artist practically pitched a no-hit game, the only accredited safe slam being made by "Red" Moore who knocked one off the fingers of Roberts, the third sacker. But the colored lad had none the best of "Pink" Hawley, who went in and threw the game. The ex-big leaguer was in the finest of form and mowed down the opposition with a regularity amazing. Three real hits and one scratch they secured, two of these in the first inning before he let himself out, and thirteen were forced to retire on strikes. Such pitching as these two artists put up was sure to develop a great game, and a great game it was, the best seen on the local field this season.

Some one said the Gophers were off color before the game started, but the way they took advantage of "Pink" in the first inning before he was warmed up to the occasion proved this to be a fallacy. The first ball thrown was slow and over, and Jones hit it on the end and sent it into right field for two sacks. Ransom sacrificed and Schaffer hit safely to right, scoring Jones for the only run of the game. From this on Hawley demonstrated what he can do if he has to. He was so sure of his prey he would let the batters they could not hit it and make his word good by striking them out. He got into a bad hole in the fourth. An error by Vogt let Schaffer reach first. Taylor beat out a bunt and Barton advanced both runners a base. With second and third occupied and only one out "Pink" fanned Roberts and Davis.

Great Fielding

The only thing which saved Davis from having a number of hits registered against him was the great fielding of his support. On several occasions hits which looked safe were pulled down. In the seventh Hazel plunked one down over third base and Roberts grabbed it with his bare hand and practically with the same motion tossed the runner out at first. F. Davis at short pulled off some great fielding stunts, the prettiest witnessed here from any club. He is graceful in his movements and sure of his work. Two quick double plays were pulled off by the colored boys.

THE UMPIRE STAFF

President Moll After Men From Iowa League

President Moll of the Wisconsin State League is having considerable trouble with his umpire staff and he is casting about for a couple of men. Among the men he is after are Flynn and Bush of the Iowa State League. Flynn had some trouble with a player last week and resigned. He is said to be a fairly good umpire and if possible Moll will sign him.

Moll returned to Milwaukee from a trip to Madison and Freeport yesterday, where he found the club owners in favor of extending the season a week. The backward spring played havoc with the schedule and several teams have a large number of postponed games to play off. Moll favors the plan and if this is agreeable to the other club owners the schedule will be extended. Moll left last night for a trip through the northern half of the circuit to confer with the magnates on the question.

ICE STRIKE OFF

NEW YORK, July 3.—The ice drivers' strike was broken this morning. It is not officially declared off, but when the American Ice company notified the union that it has enough non-union men to man the wagons three quarters of the strikers returned to work. The street cleaners also returned to work this morning.

THE DOPE BOX

Oshkosh plays here today and tomorrow. There will be two games tomorrow, one in the morning and one in the afternoon.

The manager of the Gophers made more on bets yesterday than he did at the gate. He plucked several greenbacks from local fans. The manager is a big heavyset colored man who wears a diamond as big as a bird's egg.

After two innings had been played Hawley knew every batter who faced him, and picked out their weak spots readily. The big fellow had great control, never walking a man on balls.

The fans were kept in a good humor all through the game by the witty remarks of the colored men. Here are some of them:

"Quit hittin' dat ball on de side, hit it in de middle."

"Let him know you live down stairs, Charlie."

"Gib him to me, boy, I see him first."

"Go on down chocolate, slide under de bag."

It is no wonder that the Gophers have made such a great showing this year; they play the game for all there is in it and take great chances.

Hastings was sent in to bat for Burke in the eighth inning, but failed to hit anything but wind.

The Gophers will play Caledonia next and then go up against the first team at Blair. They are a confident lot, in fact a little conceited.

Henry Murphy, the new umpire officiating at League park, was formerly an alderman from the Fourth ward in Milwaukee. It looks like politicians are breaking into baseball.

Claude Elliott, the former Brewer and recently with the Louisville club has been traded to Indianapolis in the American association. Elliott is recovering from an attack of malarial fever.

The morning game tomorrow with Oshkosh will be called at 10:30 o'clock. The afternoon game will be called at 3 o'clock.

GWINN NOT HIRED

Chicago and Milwaukee papers contained a report this morning from Freeport to the effect that "Pap" Gwinn, the released third baseman of the Pretzels, has been signed by La Crosse. President Elliott of the local association states that this is erroneous. Gwinn has not been signed by La Crosse. Gwinn was released by Freeport to make room for Uncapher, a new man.

It is scarcity of their remarks that makes some women remarkable.

HOLE IN WOMAN'S SOCK SPILLS GEMS

PASADENA, Cal., July 3.—There is a hole in one of the stockings that Mrs. Monroe Green of San Francisco wore yesterday at a hotel here, and every time she took a step some of her diamonds and pearls, worth $3,000 in all, were scattered about the floor. Mrs. Green put them there because she thought they would be safe. She says the stones cut the hole in her stocking, which had none in it when she put it on. A hotel clerk found the gems and restored

SQUIRES SAYS HE WILL WIN

AUSTRALIAN CONFIDENT HE WILL DEFEAT BURNS

WILL FIGHT AT COLMA

In an Interview Bill Says He Has Studied Burns to Perfection, Jeffries to Referee.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 3.—"I'll win in fifteen rounds," was the confident declaration of Bill Squires today, discussing his fight with Tommy Burns on Thursday. "I never possessed any fear of Burns, although for a time I was doubtful, but I have carefully studied his methods of attack in the moving pictures of Burns' other fight and I believe that I have solved him. I have been told that Burns has a weak stomach, and that will be the center of my attack. If Burns fights me at long range can outreach him, and if he comes in close I will knock his head off. So confident am I of winning that I will wager every dollar I have on myself."

Squires and his manager, Barney Reynolds, visited the arena at Colma, yesterday. Squires was pleased with the arrangements made for staging the battle and he especially liked the firm footing that the ring affords.

Odds on the betting are gradually becoming more firmly fixed in favor of the Australian, and at the present time he is the choice at 5 to 4.

Squires still continues his policy of allowing the public to see him in a portion of his training work, but the greater part is being done behind closed doors. Burns, on the contrary, has never been secretive about his training. He has labored faithfully. Persons who have talked with Tommy say that his one ambition is to put up an honest battle with the antipodean and beat him if he can. Burns believes that by doing so he will clear his name of the stigma that is now attached to it. Both Squires and Burns are now in the neighborhood of 180 pounds.

Jim Jeffries, who will referee, arrived in Colma today and had a conference with the principals.

THIRD POSITION IN BATTING LIST

EDDIE KONETCHY SURELY MAKING GOOD WITH ST. LOUIS

HAS ANOTHER GOOD DAY

Secures a Sacrifice and a Hit at Bat and Accepts Eleven Chances Without an Error

A significant fact that Eddie Konetchy is making good with the St. Louis National league club is the position he now holds in the batting list of the Cardinal team. Eddie is now hitting third, a position which denotes batting strength. He hit third for the champs and the fact that he has been placed by Manager McCluskey at the top in his team, is looked upon as a sure sign that the La Crosse boy's work is appreciated.

St. Louis lost to Pittsburgh yesterday in a pretty game 4 to 3. Eddie was up to bat four times and secured one hit and a sacrifice hit. At first base he accepted eleven chances without an error, making a total of forty-eight chances he has now had without a misplay.

Likes the Team

Carl Bond, captain of the champs, has received a letter from Eddie in which the big fellow states he is greatly pleased with his new job. He says that all of the men of the club are fine fellows. The club is now on a trip through the east.

COMPLAIN OF PASSES

ALL DISSATISFIED WITH NEW SYSTEM

City Treasurer Receives Many Complaints

More complaints are being made every day to City Treasurer Young of the pass condition existing over the wagon bridge to Pettibone park.

"Why the heaviest taxpayers are complaining over the 10 cent charge," said Mr. Young. "The coupon books are a source of annoyance and inconvenience to all. The matter of refunding the 10 cents when the covers are returned is not looked upon with any degree of satisfaction. By the old system the pass could be held up to the bridge tenders, while with the coupon books one must be torn out for the person."

A BURLESQUE CIRCUS

Conway's Entertainment at League Ball Park

The society burlesque circus for the benefit of the baseball association, in the hands of E. J. Conway, will be given at League park two days. The exact date has not been decided upon, but will be between July 15 and 19. Rehearsals are already being held and anyone wishing to take part can call on or address Mr. Conway.

A society circus of this nature is always an amusing and entertaining event. One has never been given in La Crosse and Mr. Conway proposes to make the coming one a great success. It will have two rings and a platform in the big show, with all the features to be found in a regular circus. A side show will also be arranged and a concert given after the big show. Further details of the event will be announced later.

BUILD A NEW SCHOOL

Galesville Votes to Have a Fine $25,000 Building

GALESVILLE, Wis., July 3.—(Special).—By a vote of 80 to 44 the taxpayers voted to erect a new school building at a cost of $25,000. Thus ends a fight that began more than four years ago. Galesville has ever taken first place in school matters in this section of Wisconsin, but has been handicapped of late by a school building not large enough to meet the demands of the rapidly increasing population.

The new building will be strictly modern in every detail and will be erected on the same ground where the present building now stands.

The new school building movement has been agitated by the principal business men of the city, but had met with defeat until of late when last year's school more than filled the old building and the board of education was compelled to rent rooms for a portion of the scholars.

The members of the board of education are as follows:

President—Dr. H. A. Jegl, president.

Secretary—E. F. Clark.

Treasurer—A. Tibbets.

PLAN LYCEUM COURSE

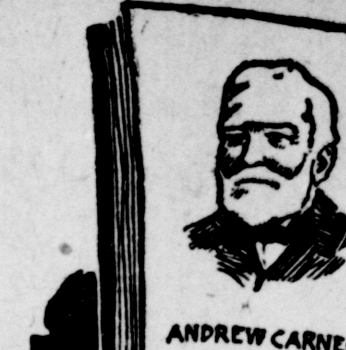

Y.M.C.A. Directors Change Former Decision

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Y. M. C. A. it was decided to hold an entertainment course the coming fall and winter. The association had practically given up the idea of furnishing a course this winter because of the expense attached, but after reconsidering the matter decided to secure the entertainments. The executive committee, composed of Harry Worthington, F. J. Correy, Norman Beans, P. T. Schultze and Wm. Batchelder, will have charge of the arrangements. The committee will decide where the entertainments will be given.

THE OLDIn electing Mr. A. A. Bentley a secretary of the board of trade to succeed Judge Ray S. Reid, retired that organization provided fully for the performance of the important and strenuous duties devolving upon the incumbent. Mr. Bentley is a man of action, young, optimistic, intelligent.
He has had a varied experience, and has highly developed those traits of observation and constructive leadership so invaluable to the business of city building. THE TRIBUNE congratulates the board and the city upon the results, just as fully as it would have done if that other public spirited and productive citizen, Willis E. Barber, had been named.It is also, we believe, a fact that the somewhat spirited contest attending the election left not an unpleasant thought, not a jarring chord that can mar the harmony of progressive effort to which we are all looking forward with zealous ambition. Mr.
Barber will be hereafter, as heretofore, a painstaking and enthusiastic contributor to the forward impulse imparted to La Crosse; Mr. Bentley, as usual, and far more than it was possible for him to do as a private citizen, will buckle into the work that confronts him with the buoyant confidence of youth and the hardheaded wisdom of real experience. There was never brighter prospect for the doing of important things in La Crosse.And, as the board of trade last night said a parting word of thanks to its resigning secretary, so THE TRIBUNE takes this opportunity of speaking with well-earned approbation of the masterful and manly efforts of Judge Ray S. Reid, and of wishing him fair fortune and the health to back his efforts of hand and brain in the great work he will attempt to perform in another field of usefulness. Judge Reid has undertaken a task requiring tireless effort, keen perception, genuine courage.
He is now fighting to show the way back from monopoly to competition in transportation. It is a peculiar task, for he will have to be detective, scientist, politician and statistician. He will succeed, we believe, and he will do it with dignity and unflinching accuracy and efficiency.

QUIET HOSPITAL ZONE ASSURED

It was with pleasure that the public read in THE TRIBUNE last evening that Mayor Anderson has issued strict orders that there be no loud noises about the hospitals of the city during the celebration of Independence day. This step is taken in the interest of humanity. It is the establishment of a custom from which there should be no variance in years to come. Parents should co-operate with the authorities in securing the rigid enforcement of the official process against noise.No matter what the jury does, the election of that body shows that the Western Federation of Miners is for acquittal in the Haywood case.Anyway, Mr. Barber escaped some deuced hard work, and at 90 in the shade that cuts some ice.

OF HUMAN INTEREST

I wonder if women realize how easy it is to drift into the habit of fault-finding? It is almost fashionable nowadays to say the unfavorable word about anything and everything rather than the favorable. I know a woman who is a perfectly delightful hostess. She has everything with which to entertain and make a guest visit pleasant. But through every hour of the day runs the little note of discontent. Nothing is done just exactly as it should have been done. If you make any pleasant remark about her furnishings, her surroundings, her advantages (and she is exceptionally blessed in all three) she receives it with a sort of an air that she ought to have things a good deal better.Her husband said once that he had never given her any sort of gift in the last ten years that had suited her nor done one thing nor said one thing that was just right. Now this is probably an exceptional case, but nevertheless we all ought to take heed and not let the habit of fault-finding get hold of us, for all habits creep on unawares. Let us remember that the appreciative word goes on so far in lightening the daily routine of our commonplace existence.BUTYERS ARE ESTEEMED; GOOD MEN

(Evening Wisconsin.)

The announcement from Crook-ston, Minn., of the discovery, deeply embedded in the wall of an ancient Norwegian anchor, believed to be a relic of the party led on the eastern coast of North America by Lief, the Norwegian, in the year 1000, is important if true.The public do not accept these "discoveries" as readily as it did before the hoax of the Cardiff giant, Longfellow's beautiful poem "The Skeleton in Armor" was inspired by a "find" of this sort at Fall River, Mass., in 1838. At that time the old mill at Newport was believed to be a relic of the Norsemen, but now it is looked upon as not much older than the American Revolution. In the Museum of Rio de Janeiro are brass tablets which were found in Brazil, and which contain marks that the people of the Brazilian capital believe to be a Phoenician inscription, and on this evidence they confidently assert that the Phoenicians were in South America 5000 years before the Christian era. Near Mexico, many years ago, it has been asserted, there was found a flat stone which contained the following inscription in Greek: "During the domination of Alexander, the son of Philip, king of Macedonia, in the Sixty-third Olympiad." This stone when lifted, revealed a vault in which were two swords, a shield and helmet, the helmet being ornamented with a representation of Achilles gazing the body of Hector round the walls of Troy, and one of the swords bearing on its handle a portrait of Alexander.Some people who have read this remarkable statement accept as evidence that the Greeks were in South America in the time of Alexander.Others classify the whole account with the celebrated "Moor Hoax," as an instance of the ability of American newspaper writers to invent interesting lies.The very name of Crookston is ominous of Crooks' Town. There may be a Joel Mulholland at Crookston, who is working off imaginative dispatches. The anchor is nowadays the emblem of hope, but was it so in the time of Lief, the Norseman?
Even if it was, and if his followers had penetrated the continent as far as Crookston, would they have carried their anchor to such a distant inland?This is a skeptical age, and most of the readers of the Crookston dispatch will want to be "shown" before they will believe that any anchor has been discovered.It is a good sign that all controversy over the board of trade election ended with the announcement of the vote. It was one of the hottest little contests that has ever been waged in the city, yet it was as free from "back-biting" and malice as a family reunion.Buyers are esteemed; good men dress are deemed.—Chinese.

gence by the following marriage don'ts:1—Don't marry merely because you "fall in love."Ask yourself frankly if you are in love with the man himself or with unimportant details of dress or looks or manner that have caught your fancy.2—Don't marry a man without an aim—a definite aim.Do you know enough of him to analyze his character at all, go far enough to find out exactly what his purpose in life is—or if he has a purpose. Many men haven't any.3—Don't marry a man who places undue importance upon dress or looks or position, or any superficial thing.If a man is too fond of dress or display, if he thinks too much of society or of merely idle pleasure, beware of putting your life's happiness in his hands.4—Don't marry a man for his looks.Learn to look for character qualities. Learn to dissect, to analyze human nature. Learn to know the man as he is.5—Don't select a man who belittles your ability to help and inspire him.A true man will believe in you and place confidence in your capacities as a helpmeet.6—Don't marry a man who lacks force of character.

MARRIAGE IN OLD AGE

(Chicago Journal.)

A respected citizen of Chicago is about to marry for the fifth time at the age of 81. The bride is ten years his junior, and some of their friends shake their heads ominously and hint that the couple had better be thinking of where they will spend eternity than of the joys of matrimony.But man is a gregarious animal.
Society is necessary to his happiness.
Why should a man, because he is old according to ordinary standards, resign himself to solitude when it is possible for him to find companionship and helpfulness? In these days of increased longevity a man of 81 may have many years of life before him, and a woman of 71 is still young, or may be, if she understands life thoroughly. There seems to be no reason why they should settle down into hermits and allow themselves to ossify. It is much better to keep in the stream of energy and take part in the world's work.Friends are hard to get for a man of 81, even though he has retained his early willingness to make them.
Most of his old friends have passed on, and life must seem very lonely to him. When he finds a woman ready to share what remains to him of life and walk down the rim of the world hand in hand with him, he is fortunate and to be envied. He has escaped one of life's worst evils, the solitude of old age.The aged couple will undoubtedly find happiness in their union, and all their friends should rejoice over their good luck instead of mourning their folly. May they live many years to prove the contention that happiness is not the exclusive right of the young and that old age can take as much comfort and satisfaction out of the marriage state as anyone.Gibbon was gouty. He grew so stout he could not dress himself.QUIPS AND CRANKS

A Fable.

The hen remarked to the muley cow,
As she cackled her daily lay, (That is, the hen cackled) "It's funny howI'm good for an egg a day.
I'm a fool to do it, for what do I get?My food and lodging. My!
But the poodle gets that—he's the household pet,
And he never has laid a single egg yet—
Not even when eggs are high.The muley cow remarked to the hen, As she masticated her cud, (That is, the cow did) "Well, what then?You quit, and your name is mud.
I'm good for eight gallons of milk each day.And I'm given my stable and grub; But the parrot gets that much anyway—
All she can gobble—and what does she pay?Not a dribble of milk, the dub!
But the hired man remarked to the pair."You get all that's coming to you.
The poodle does tricks, an' the parrot kin swear.Which is better th'n you kin do.
You're necessary, but what's the use O' bewailin' youd daily part?
You're bourgeois—workin's your only excuse;You can't do nothin' but jest produce—
What them fellows does it Art!"

"has its joys. It has its sorrows, did you or did you not tell my client last year that the five feet of ground in question belonged to him?""Permit—

"No, I permit nothing. Answer my question, yes or no. Did you tell Mr. Jones those five feet of ground belonged to him?""Yes, I did, said Smith, desper-

Only a Poor Substitute

Recently a district visitor in the east end of London asked the wife of a notorious drinker why she did not keep her husband from the public house."Well," she answered, "I have done my best, ma'am, but he will go there.""Why don't you make your home look more attractive?""I'm sure I've tried and to make it 'omelike, ma'am," was the reply.
"I've took up the parlor carpet and sprinkled sawdust on the floor, and put a beer barrel in the corner; but lor, ma'am, it ain't made a bit of difference."—Tit-Bits.

The Human Shield

The advent of Decoration day caused Admiral Dewey, at a recent dinner, to praise the bravery of the American troops, during the Civil war."Both sides alike were brave," he said, "north and south, soldiers and was a thing to be seen to be he had gotten initiated, fought hero-ahead of him, and when the bullets began to fly, the chum began to

The fireman arose from his chair, dropping an empty shoe with a thump, but, being of the West, without cavil or waste of wind, he stretched his hands above his head, balancing on one foot to keep his unshod member from the damp floor.He had unbuckled his belt, and now loosened by the movement, his overalls seemed bent on sinking floor-ward in an ecstasy of abashment at the intrusion, whereupon with convulsive grip he hugged them to their duty, one hand and foot still elevated as though in the grand hallingsign of some secret order. The other man was new to the ways of the North, so backed to the limit of his quarters, laid both hands protect-ingly upon his middle, and doubled up, remarking, fervidly:"Don't point that damn thing at my stomach.""Ha, ha!" laughed the fireman, with unnatural loudness. "Have your joke, boys.""This ain't no joke," said the foremost figure, its breath bellying out the mask at its mouth."Sure it is," insisted the shoeless one. "Must be—we ain't got anything worth stealing.""Get into your clothes and come along. We won't hurt you." The two obeyed and were taken to the sleeping engine and there instructed to produce a full head of steam in thirty minutes or suffer a premature taking off and a prompt eli-sion from the realms of applied mechanics. As stimulus to their efforts two of the men stood over them till the engine began to sob and sigh reluctantly. Through the gloom that curtains the cab they saw other dim forms materializing and climbing silently on to the cars behind; then, as the steam-gauge touched the mark, the word was given and the train rumbled out from its shelter, its shrill plaint at curb and crossing whipped away and drowned in the storm.Slapjack remained in the cab, gun in lap, while Dextery climbed back to Glenister. He found the young man in good spirits, despite the discomfort of his exposed position, and striving to light his pipe behind the shelter of his coat."Is the dynamite aboard?" the old man questioned."Sure. Enough to ballast a battle-ship."As the train crept out of the camp and across the river bridge, its only light or glimmer the sparks that were snatched and harried by the blast, the partners seated themselves on the powder cases and conversed guardedly, while about them sounded the low murmur of the men who risked their all upon this cry to duty, who staked their lives and futures upon this hazard of the hills, because they thought it right."We've made a good fight, whether we win or lose tonight," said Dextery.Roy replied, "My fight is made

ROCKEFELLER PAYS FINE

SCORES THE STANDARD OIL ON CHANGE OF VENUE

Sermon on Anarchistic Tendencies in America Contains Many Startling Declarations.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., July 3.—In a red-hot peroration to his sermon on anarchistic tendencies in America, the Rev. Dr. Charles Mayne pastor of the Broadway Methodist church, startled his audience with the declaration that he would consent to be hanged the day John D. Rockefeller paid any fine assessed either against himself or the Standard Oil company. Dr. Mayne said: "We are told the Standard Oil company is now liable to a fine of $29,000,000 for violation of the laws. I will consent to be hanged on the day the Standard Oil company pays its fine. Even if it did pass over that amount of cash the company would simply raise the price of oil and the public would pay the fines in the end. In legal proceedings wealth and position play too great a part in turning the balance of justice."

FLAMES GUT STORE

Fire Destroys Stock of W.
K. Morrison Company

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 3.—A blast of flame yesterday swept through W. K. Morrison & Co.'s hardware store, four stories high, at 247-249 Nicollet avenue, causing a loss of $150,000. This is the second big fire in the Morrison store as flames caused a loss of $112,000 in the same building in October, 1906.

The cause of the fire has not been determined. An explosion shortly after 4 a. m. threw flames to all parts of the first and second floors, giving the fire such a headway as it would not otherwise have attained in an hour. The intense heat broke some of the heavy windows in front, and the draft caused by the rush of air increased the heat in the rear of the building, breaking more windows and blowing the flames through the crevices of the iron shutters made to protect the building from fire on the outside.

It was the explosion that gave the police the first warning. They turned in an alarm, and in a few minutes the fire department was at work. Second and third alarms were sent in immediately.

The loss will probably be $150,000 W. K. Morrison says. He came down town soon after the fire started. The damage is heavier than was caused by the fire two years ago. The loss then, Mr. Morrison said, was nearly that much, and the amount of insurance paid was $112,000. The stock carried this summer was much larger, he said. The loss on the stock will be about $135,000, and on the building $15,000.

Mr. Morrison had planned to leave Minneapolis today for a trip abroad. He had purchased his tickets and in a few hours more would have been out of the city. He intended sailing from New York July 11.

TAXPAYERS PAY
KAUFMAN TRIALMEDICAL EXPERTS' BILLS ARE EXCEEDINGLY HEAVYCLAIMS DOUBTLESS WILL BE ADJUSTED BY COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., July 3.—That the recent trial in the state circuit court of Moody county, on a change of venue from the state circuit court of Minnehaha county, of Mrs. Emma Kaufmann of this city, on the charge of having murdered her young housemaid will prove quite expensive for the taxpayers of Minnehaha county, who will have to foot the bills as indicated by the character of the bills which have been filed by some of the medical experts who were summoned to testify in behalf of the prosecution.

Dr. H. B. Schofield, of Parkston, already has filed a bill for $525, and if rumors are based upon a good foundation, this sum does not represent the amount of his entire claim. Dr. Arthur Sweeney, of St. Paul, has filed a bill for $1,250, while a bill for a similar amount has been filed by Dr. Frank E. Coulter, of Omaha. Doctors Sweeney and Coulter were the principal medical experts, who were present at the trial of Mrs. Kaufman, and whose testimony strongly supported the cause of the prosecution.

These claims doubtless will have to be adjusted by the board of county commissioners of Minnehaha county.

BLOOD POISON
CURE YOURSELF AT HOME

Contagious Blood Poison begins in the most insignificant way, and with less evidence of what is to follow, than any other disease. The first symptom is usually a little sore or blister, whose appearance does not indicate that deeper down, in the blood, a treacherous deadly poison has found its way to corrupt and vitiate the entire circulation, and later to disease the body with the most loathsome and hal symptoms. Unless one has experienced or witnessed the terrible results of Contagious Blood Poison, no idea of its effects can be formed.

When the blood has become fully inoculated with virus, the mouth and throat ulcerate; glands in the neck and groin swell, and sometimes, forming ulcers; the hair comes out; copper colored spots appear on the body; and the disease is allowed to remain in the system it penetrates deeper and deeper, until it affects the bones, causing them to decay, and makes a complete physical wreck of its unfortunate victim.

Not only the first one who contracts the disease must suffer, but it is transmitted through the blood from generation to generation, and innocent lives are blighted and diseased by this monster poison. No other disease is so highly contagious as blood poison; in the most trivial manner it may be contracted by innocent persons. Any have been inoculated with the virus and suffered the disastrous and destructive effects of the poison, by a friendly handshaking or by using the same tableware or articles, or handling the clothing of affected person.

Strong mineral medicines like mercury and potash are often given to cure Contagious Blood Poison, but years of failure have proven that such treatment cannot cure the trouble. These medicines can only mask the disease up in the system for awhile; as soon as they are left off the symptoms turn in all their hideousness, and the sufferer finds he has wasted valuable time, and, addition, ruined his health with these harmful drugs.

S. S. S. is the antidote for Contagious Blood Poison—the only remedy that is able to get at the root of the disease and force out every particle of the poison, so that there are never any signs of its return. It can be used and a part cure of the disease made in the privacy of your own home. Sufferers from this disease can be their own doctors, and the forty years of cures made by this remedy assures them that the treatment is in every respect the proper one, and that its use, together with suggestions as to local treatment, which will be furnished by our physicians free of charge, will cure the trouble permanently and privately. S. S. S. is made entirely of purifying, healing roots, herbs and barks. We offer a reward of $1,000 for proof that it contains a particle of mineral in any form. S. S. S. goes down to the very root of the trouble, and by driving out the last trace of the poison, and making the blood pure and strong, cures the disease thoroughly and with certainty. S. S. S. will also remove the effects of any mineral treatment that may have been previously used.

"Home Treatment" book on this disease is a complete guide for treating the trouble. It contains instructions for the different stages of the disease, and also advice about the local treatment that will be the most helpful in effecting a cure. This book, together with any special medical advice desired, will be sent free to our physicians, to all who write.

HOW ARE MADE HAPPY

THAT NUMBER GET LICENSES IN JUNE

Five More Granted Than in June Last Year

The month of June has not lost its popularity as a month for weddings if the records in the office of County Clerk Charles H. Rawlinson are anything to go by. During the month of June just passed fifty-five marriage licenses were issued by the clerk. This is just thirty-one more permits to wed than were issued in May when only twenty-four were asked for.

In 1906 the month of June was a banner month also, but the rapid increase in population is noticeable in the increase in licenses between this year and last. Every month shows a considerable increase. In June, 1906, fifty licenses were issued.

FIND SNAKE IN HAY

Farmer Miller Markets Rattler With His Load

A large rattlesnake was discovered crawling out of a load of hay on the market square this afternoon. One of the attendants at the scales was looking the hay over when he discovered the snake with eight rattles crawling along the ground. He killed the reptile with a rake and Mr. Miller of Mormon Coulee, who owned the hay, took the snake to the city treasurer to receive a bounty. He reports that he has killed several rattlers in his hay meadow.

ON BOTH SIDES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—Mrs. Mary Logan Tucker, daughter of the late Gen. John A. Logan, admitted yesterday that she and her husband, Lieut. Col. William F. Lemon, a millionaire pension attorney died. Mrs. Tucker and Lemon were excellent friends and when Lemon died he willed $25,000 to Mrs. Tucker.

ADVISE COAL STORAGE
Coal Dealers Can Save Money by Acting Now
The railroads have advised the coal dealers to commence storing coal in the summer months while the price is lower and while the cars are not so scarce. The time is fast approaching when the demand for coal will tax the capacity of both the mines and the transportation lines. An effort is being made to prevent the regular delays to factories. This movement will probably do away with the general scarcity of coal in the winter months.

MAY ISSUE A "CALL OF HOUSE"

TIERED LEGISLATORS MAY GO HOME TO STAY

WORK IS NOT YET FINISHED

And There May Be Trouble Getting the Solons Back to Madison to Complete It

MADISON, Wis., July 3.—(Special).—There seems to be considerable dissatisfaction over the prolonged session of the legislature and it seems if the members had remained here until today all measures would be out of the way. As a result of the recess, however, nearly two-thirds of the members have gone home for good and as the insurance bill may come back from the senate with amendments. There are many indications of a call of the house.

Had the senate been active, the insurance measures might have been forced through Friday night, but the threat of the attorneys that if the laws were passed in the assembly form, they would withdraw from the state, caused many to want to put off action until after the recess. By that time it is believed a number of amendments will be proposed. The assembly will not permit any very radical changes in the measures, without compelling all the members to return and vote on the proposed changes.

Many Bills Untouched
There were at least 100 bills on Saturday's calendar which were not reached and there is one appropriation in the senate, which if it comes to the assembly will need at least sixty votes to pass it, according to the constitution. These things make many of the more experienced legislators believe there is more than a week of work before them following reconvening on July 8.

There are some who assert that the prolonged session of the legislature is entirely due to the persistence of Speaker Ekern, who wants the insurance bills passed in the original form. This seems hardly fair, however, as the speaker was in favor of having a few days' more work before the recess.

One of the features of this session is the large expenditure of state monies. About $2,000,000 has been voted for the state university; $5,400,000 to be collected during the next nine years for a new capitol; $30,000 for a mining school at Platteville, which many of the members assert was unnecessary; $100,000 for an old soldiers' monument on the battle ground of Vicksburg; a couple of millions have been spent on the charitable and penal institutions; $125,000 has been voted for a twin factory at the state prison at Waupun; $210,000 for the La Crosse normal school; $95,000 for the improvement of other normals of the state; $60,000 for a site for the Milwaukee normal and a number of thousands in smaller bills too numerous to mention.

Davidson Not Blamed
An examination of the bills shows, with the exception of a couple of the measures, nearly all had to be passed at this time. There was a crying need for this expenditure and it would not be just to compare the expenditure of this administration with previous ones.

The session was prolonged about six weeks beyond what its limit would have been on account of the election of a United States senator. The wheels of legislation were clogged for weeks during the contest, and it seemed that the members could not gather themselves together for finishing up the work. Speaker Ekern will have nothing to say regarding when the session will close, but the floor leaders do not expect any date could be accepted before July 15.

There are a large number of bills now in the hands of the governor. The process of enrolling the measures is slow and the public utility measure which passed over two weeks ago, has not as yet been received by the executive.

The question was raised by a resident of Winona, owing to the employment of two managers from the Illinois company.

North La Crosse Merchants' association, with regard to the proposed central market plan. Mr. Boyd said that owing to lack of time the committee had been unable to decide upon any plans and asked that an extension of time be granted in which to do the work.

Excursion Successful

The Rushford excursion was then reported upon by John Dengler, chairman of the committee. Mr. Dengler stated that the excursion had been a decided success, 105 tickets being sold. Profits of the trip amounted to $10.86. This sum was turned over to the board with a recommendation that it be turned over to the committee on the Spring Grove excursion, in case his committee had a deficit.

To Banquet Regents

A banquet at the Stoddard hotel was decided upon. This banquet will be held in honor of the normal school regents who will visit La Crosse some time within five or six weeks. It was also decided to extend special invitations to Senator Morris and Assemblymen Keppel and Miller as guests of honor. C. S. Van Auker, who made the original resolution suggested that Mayor Anderson and President Ray appoint committees to arrange for the banquet. The motion was carried with the amendment that President William Luening of the La Crosse board of education be added. Dr. Evans who made the amendment, suggested that it would be advisable to get out the public school principals, who seldom are seen at board of trade banquets owing to the small salaries which they are receiving for their services.

Reid Resigns

Secretary Ray S. Reid then tendered his resignation as secretary. Mr. Reid said that matters have shaped themselves in such a way as to make it impossible for him to give the work its proper attention. He expressed the deepest obligation to the members for the work done and the co-operation during his short term of service, and said that he had performed the tasks imposed to the best of his ability.

Deplores Laxity.

Mr. Reid took occasion to touch upon the topic of railroad rates and deplored the fact that members of the board had refused to authorize him to go into this work, when his term of service began. The secretary said that it is of the greatest importance for La Crosse to take up this matter at once and secure a rate with the railway companies that will favorably compete with Chicago rates. As an example of the need of such action, he cited the case of the city of Milwaukee which has just recently taken up this matter to the best of advantage. In regard to rates, Mr. Reid stated that he was greatly interested, and suggested that if the board at any time has need of his assistance in this class of work he will gladly obey its every command.

Resignation Accepted.

President Ray made a brief speech wherein he lauded the work of the secretary and expressed regret at his resignation.

Attorney O. R. Skaar then made a motion that Mr. Reid's resignation be accepted immediately. He was opposed by W. B. Tscharnier who amended the motion so as to read that Mr. Reid's resignation would be accepted at the next regular meeting, when a successor would be chosen. The speaker dwelt upon the fact that all of the members had not been notified that an election was to be held.

Fred G. Kroner and O. R. Skaar maintained that the resignation of Mr. Reid should be accepted immediately. Mr. Baldwin and others disagreed, claiming that it was unconstitutional to hold such an election without written notices being sent. Mr. Taylor agreed with Mr. Baldwin that the motion should be held over until the July meeting. Thereupon Fred Kroner, Jr., and O. R. Skaar spoke for the resolution. After considerable talk the board decided to offer the proposition to a vote. The vote was 64 to 22 in favor of the motion to have the election at once.

Attorney W. F. Wolfe, seconded by C. S. Van Auker, placed Mr. Bentley's name in nomination, while Otto Bosshard made the nomination of Mr. Barber, seconded by W. B. Tscharnier.

A general discussion of the candidates then arose, and there was a spirited, but friendly rivalry between the friends of the candidates. A question was raised as to the legality of the proceedings at this time owing to the fact that notices had not been sent out of the election. C. L. Baldwin asked that his objection to the proceedings at this time be entered onto the minutes of the meeting. One ballot was taken and the election of Mr. Bentley was then declared unanimous.

Mr. Bentley responded with a short speech, wherein he said that he would make no promises, but would let his work as secretary speak for him. He promised not to devote 24 hours a day to the work, but to do all the tasks the members will shoot into his office. When he is unable to do the work alone, he said, he will hire help.

The meeting adjourned with a vote of thanks to the retiring secretary.

learn by asking her grocer the differences in prices between the goods that are guaranteed to be free from these seasonings, and those which are not. She will learn that for the greater part the articles guaranteed to be free of such preservatives or coloring matter constitute the limited aristocracy of food articles, at prices which make them the luxuries of the comparative few.

Doubtless when the regulations against use of these alleged harmful preservatives are generally enforced, as they will be next year, the prices of strictly pure articles will come down somewhat because they will have to be made in so much greater quantities. But there is no doubt that the cost will be increased notably.

New Law Makes Great Difference

Many millions are invested in the canning and preserving business in this country. The question of how to handle this industry was a very difficult one when the new food law and amendments passed. Secretary Wilson was determined not to inflict any more inconveniences than was absolutely unavoidable upon manufacturers. Accordingly it has been arranged that for the packing of vegetables, fruits, etc., of this year's crop—contracts for which were made largely before any regulations affecting them were ready—there shall be no serious interference with the old methods. But when another year's pack is made it will have to be under the new regulations.

Like Mother Used to Make

Take canned vegetables—tomatoes, corn and the like. Most of them contain preservatives. The manufacturers have in many cases insisted that without the preservatives they could not be put up to "keep." But the pure food authorities, recalling the canned fruits and vegetables that "mother used to put up in the fall" are of the opinion that mother's processes can be adopted on the larger scale required for a big business, and the public will get pure goods without any great addition to the price. Only experience will determine what the effect will finally be.

Pie at any rate is going up whenever sodium benzoate is denied to the makers of the insides. The slice which now sells at 5 cents will command 10, and the 10 cent portion will go for not less than 15, according to the dire forecasts of the pie purveyors. Pie will become the luxury of the rich rather than the staple of the bourgeoisie dyspeptic.

Then there is the whole huge problem of glucose, on which the food authorities have not made rules yet, but which must be looked after soon. In fact the regulations regarding its use and the labeling of packages or articles containing it, are now in the incubator at Dr. Wiley's laboratory. Glucose is one of the biggest items in the country's production of food staples, but a mighty little of it is sold or used under its own name. The question of whether the public will buy the same articles when the label explains the presence of the glucose is a bit uncertain, but it is expected there will be a good deal of prejudice and that people who feel it, will have to pay more for what pleases them.

Meats are steadily going up in prices, with small chance of a considerable reaction. How much the inspection and food laws can be blamed is uncertain. The new rule of the packers of buying only subject to post mortem inspection is credited with a considerable effect.

RECEIVES MONEY IN TRUST

APPLETON, Wis., July 3.—With the completion of the $200,000 endowment fund for Lawrence university, President Samuel Plantz last night announced a novel plan for university endowments.

"Lawrence university," said Dr. Plantz, "is working a plan of annuity bequests by which money is accepted in trust by our trustees, and the income of it given for life to the donor or anyone whom he may designate. When the beneficiary dies, the principal is added to the university endowment. The plan seems of value to persons who want to be free from the care of property, or those who have no heirs. It is of especial advantage to widows.

"Rates of interest are paid according to the ages of the donors."

WILLIS JOHNSON MYSTERIOUSLY GONE

MELROSE LAD DISAPPEARS
FROM UNCLE'S HOME

WENT TO FARGO ON VACATION

Relatives Have No Trace of Him; Is Son of Carpenter at Nearby Place; Is 15 Years Old

Willis Johnson, aged 15, son of Arthur Johnson, a carpenter residing near Melrose, has mysteriously disappeared from the home of his uncle, near Fargo, N. D., where he had gone to spend the summer vacation.

A brief news dispatch contains intelligence of the disappearance but no details as to the theories of his western relatives, as to what might have happened to him.

The boy left for the west as soon as school at Melrose was out. He is regarded as a modest youth, and is well liked. Owing to his habits and personality, it is not thought by friends and relatives that he would leave his uncle's home for his home in Melrose without saying something to his uncle, and in view of these circumstances, the mystery concerning his whereabouts is difficult to understand.

the business. He further states that she has drawn money from the bank and lavishly expended it on herself; that when he endeavored to keep a record of the business she disposed of the memorandums. In regard to trouble at the dye works Saturday he states that she stood in the front door with a club and threatened to hit anyone who wanted to come in; further, that she slammed the door in the face of John Gabler and smashed the plate glass front.

Is His Business

As to the litigation involving the question of whether the business belongs to Olson or his wife, an affidavit is in the hands of the plaintiff from his father to the effect that the business was sold to him solely and alone, the father disposing of it to his son for $400, half of this being paid. The affidavit also says that when his son married the woman she was penniless and had nothing in her possession; that she took a $100 check from him and deposited it in her own name and also $85 belonging to him. This money, he alleges, she will not return.

Attorney Interfered

The affidavit of Frank Yoltson, the officer who took the revolver from Mrs. Olson, sets up the allegation that she would not give up the gun and he had to take it away from her. He further says that Attorney Higbee told her to shoot anyone who interfered; that Mr. Higbee interfered when the effort was made to take away the gun and that it was necessary to pull him away. Mr. Yoltson states also that she caused all the disturbance and drew the crowd.

The affidavit of H. S. Thill is to the effect that he heard her using profane language and had to tell her to stop or he would arrest her. Mr. Thill states that he saw her slap and beat Mr. Olson.

Sheriff Burns has filed his affidavit to the effect that he served the papers on her to turn over the business to her husband. There are a number of others also to be put in evidence detailing the same assertions.

DAILY MARKETS

BLACK RASPBERRIES ON MARKET TODAY

NEW FRUIT SELLS AT FIFTEEN CENTS PER QUART

STRAWBERRIES NOT PLENTIFUL

But the Crop of the Large Lucious Variety and Other Fruits Will Be in Abundance

Black raspberries are on the local market today selling at 15 cents a quart. Cauliflower dropped 10 cents and is now selling at 10@15 cents each.

Small fruit has appeared in the market from local growers and the crop is reported light, especially of strawberries, but others bid fair to be heavy. Strawberries, however, are luscious and large. Apples are sure to be a heavy crop unless the wind plays havoc with them, as is not apt to be the case from this time forward. All in all the prospects are bright for farmers in this part of the state.

WILL CASE DELAYED

Length of Testimony Causes Conclusion Friday

The case of Rhoda L. Page vs. Joseph St. Louis and Emma St. Louis was last night continued in circuit court until Friday, owing to the length of the testimony. Taking of testimony has been completed and arguments will be made at that time. Otto Bosshard is appearing for Mrs. Page and John Doherty appears for the defendants. The case is brought to set aside a will which Mrs. Page alleges she made upon misrepresentation and after undue influence had been brought to bear upon her by the defendants. Joseph St. Louis is at the present time said to be confined in a Dakota penitentiary on a charge of horse stealing.

ROCKEFELLER STILL DODGES OFFICERS

It is thought Rockefeller may surrender on account of the illness of his wife, whose condition is worse owing to the dodging tactics of her husband.

UNHAPPY WEDDED ONES DIVORCED

MILL OF THE GOD OF LOVE GRINDS SWIFTLY

BOOZE BASIS OF COMPLAINTS

La May, Ross and Sherwood Homes Are Broken up by Decree of the Court

Today was divorce day in circuit court and the court has been busy hearing the actions the entire day. Mary La May obtained a divorce from William La May, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment, and drunkenness. She was awarded alimony in the sum of $20.00 per month and the custody of their one child.

James Ross and Mary Ross, who have been married for ten years and only lived together for one day, were awarded a divorce on grounds of mutual incompatibility.

Lottie Sherwood alleged nonsupport, cruel and inhuman treatment, assault and battery, drunkenness, and desertion against her husband, John Sherwood. She said that they were married in 1902 and since that time her life has been a burden on account of the treatment accorded her by her husband. She alleged that he frequently attacked and choked her, and otherwise assaulted her, did not support her, and continually was in the habit of getting drunk.

The court granted her a divorce and gave a judgment of $53.00, costs of the action, against her husband.

STERLING ALLEGES PERSONAL PERSECUTION

"Unmerciful persecution of a man whose character is unassailable," is the way C. A. Sterling, proprietor of the Law hotel, speaks in connection with the council's action in closing up his bar by not granting him a license. Mr. Sterling returned home last evening from Minneapolis to learn of the existing conditions.

"I will have affidavits from many business men of this city to show that my character is unimpeachable," said Mr. Sterling this morning.

Mr. Sterling alleges that he is the victim of personal persecution of the police and others.

FOR WOMEN

FOOTGEAR NOTES.
Newest Wrinkles in Footwear For Midway's Spring Outfit.

Fancy styles are so much the rule in footwear that they have ceased to be remarkable. Even the plain sensible styles of walking shoes are garnished with all sorts of fancy perforations.

Tan boots have been generally worn all winter with short walking skirts and have proved so comfortable as well as pretty that the style bids fair to hold good all spring.

The Cuban heel is the ruling one for general wear, the extremely high narrow heel being confined to dress slippers. Short vamps are the rule, as the majority of women looking down on their feet have an idea that short vamps make the foot look smaller.

Never was there a greater mistake. The effect really produced is in nine cases out of ten to make the foot seem broad and ungainly.

Ribbon ties and the flat stiff ribbon bows are still in evidence. There are many variations of other kinds of low shoes. The elongation of the vamps into crossed straps that close with buttons or buckles and modifications of the colonial types are some of these.

NEW ETON JACKET—5634.

White kid uppers both with tan and black patent leather foxing are very smart and much more durable than they appear to be, since the uppers clean easily, a preparation being made for the purpose.

The simple Eton jacket is always in demand, and the one pictured comes under this very desirable head. As illustrated, it is of panama cloth trimmed with wide soutache braid.

FRAU WAGNER DROPS SCEPTER OF BAIREUTH

BERLIN, July 3.—Frau Cosima Wagner, who for many years has ruled the destinies of Bayreuth with an iron hand, enjoying absolute authority in the management of the famous music drama festivals there, has formally announced her purpose of retiring from active control and has selected her successors to carry on the work. She bases her action on the ground of the condition of her health. Hereafter the Bayreuth productions will be managed jointly by Sigfried Wagner, son of the great composer, and Frau Louise Reuss, niece, the noted Dresden concert singer. The latter will have a large share in the control of the festivals, which thus will remain to a great extent under feminine management.

HE PUTS "WITCH" UNDER PEACE BONDS

VINCENNES, Ind., July 3.—Believing that the death of his 2 year old son was caused by witchcraft, and that other members of his family are in danger, John Paris has instituted proceedings to place "Mag" Gilmore, aged 70, under a surety peace bond.

Some weeks ago a chicken belonging to the woman is alleged to have been injured by one of Paris' children. "If that chicken dies, one of your children dies," is said to have been the remark of the aged woman.

The chicken died, and yesterday the son of Paris died of whooping cough.

SHOE MAY BE DEADLY WEAPON

KEWAUNEE, Ill., July 3.—Whether or not a shoe is a deadly weapon must be determined by the Henry county circuit court in the case of Charles Depritte, who was indicted today for assaulting Edward Decker with that kind of a weapon.

Tasso was poor most of his days. His biseries finally drove him mad.

BARNUM AND BAILEY WILL GET HERE BEFORE DAWN

STATE STREET TENTED CITY

Arrival of Circus and Placing of Big Tents Proves a Most Interesting Spectacle

"The big show comes tomorrow." The sense of exhilaration that sweeps over the community at this announcement is not confined to the small boy nor to the small boy's big brother.

Brings Back Old Memories.

It is a popular and legitimate thing for pater familias to "hem" and "haw" a little when asked if he is going to the circus and finally admit in a half-deprecating way, that "he will probably have to go—and see the animals." But way down in his heart, unless that useful member is warped and calloused beyond all hope of recovery, there is a sense of jubilation—a surging of old feelings and old memories—a perfect flood of recollections in which the one ring circus of other days, and Dan Rice, and "Jim" Robinson, the "champion rider of the universe," and a long list of other famous ring celebrities, are photographed upon his mind in a composite picture of other days. He may possibly say that the circus of these strenuous days, when there is so much to see that the spectator is constantly threatened with strabismus and mental aberration, is not to be compared with the old time circus, with a single clown, one elephant, and a lonesome family of acrobats, but, nevertheless, he wouldn't miss the show for twenty times the price of admission, and down in his heart he knows he is a good natured hypocrite and that he would "take in" the circus if there wasn't a boy this side of the North pole.

And so, when the five trains of cars, used to transport the Barnum & Bailey Greatest Shows on Earth come rolling into the city, one after another, the curious army of greeting will not be confined to the small boy. Not much; father will be there and mother and the small boy's big brother and big sister, with a few uncles and aunts, and a large contingent of the small boy's neighbors. Why? Well, that's something no one can explain. It is the fascination that is part and parcel of the circus, and that is all that can be said about it.

The show will pitch its tents on the grounds on Seventeenth and State streets. As fast as the cars are unloaded, in the railroad yards, the vans and wagons will be transferred to the exhibition grounds, and the work of erecting the tents put in operation. This is one of the most interesting features incident to the arrival of the big show, and always furnishes the crowd a great deal to see and to marvel at. With the Barnum & Bailey circus this is true to an unusual extent, for the reason that the tents are the largest that have ever been constructed and require the heaviest poles ever utilized in a traveling exhibition. The center poles particularly, are as heavy as any three poles used by ordinary circuses, while their length is equal to the tallest mast of an ocean-going sailing ship. Notwithstanding the great amount of canvas and the immense height of the poles, the tents will go up with almost incredible swiftness, and within two hours after the arrival of the first wagon on the show lot, the erstwhile barren field will be transformed into a veritable city of canvas, with all the life, hustle and novelty of a great fair. The people, who go to the show grounds to see these unwonted scenes, will need a dozen pairs of eyes. Everything is novel and interesting to the uninitiated, the housing of the hundreds of sleek, well-groomed horses; the erection of the menagerie tent to protect the rare and curious animals from possible inclement weather, and incidentally, the eyes of the crowd; the work of the elephants, which are used to push the great vans and wagons into place; the commissary department, with its great ranges on wheels, and its dining tents with places for over a thousand "guests" at a single sitting; the dressing tents, where the performers are inspecting their wardrobe and preparing for the exhibitions; the mammoth hippodrome pavilion with its wonderful seat platforms and grand stand opera chairs and long rows of boxes, and triple rings and stages, and forest of aerial rigging for the performers of the "flying meteors." Every way the visitor turns there will be something new to see and something novel and unexpected to talk about.

Free Show Better Than Parade

Every thing will be in readiness for the free show which is to inaugurate the engagement. This remarkable exhibition will take place on the show grounds about 11 o'clock, and will be repeated at 5 p. m. It will be worth going miles to see. The initial performance will take place at 2 o'clock and the final one at 8 p. m. A great circus company has been gathered from all parts of the world. The performance is preceded by a beautiful military and allegorical spectacle, founded on the Russo-Japanese war, and entitled, "Peace." Then comes the circus numbers, including the sensational automobile "Dip of death," Capt. Howells' thrilling ski sailing feats, and the mid-air bicycle revolutions of the French Bolter brothers. Owing to the immense amount of paraphernalia handled, these sensational acts will be presented in the early part of the program at the night performance.

The crowds at the ticket wagons during the opening hours may be avoided by securing seats down town, show day, at Hebbard & Co.'s drug store, 331 Main street. There is no advance in prices at the down town office.

KISS IS SNARE OF THE KISSING DEVIL

CARIO, Ill., July 3.—More evil lurks in a poor little "kiss" than all the divorces put together, according to Dr. D. L. Bass, of the Cavalry Baptist church.

The Rev. Mr. Bass said the kiss was the devil's most cherished and fruitful weapon for bringing in his harvest, and did more to fill hell than whisky, drugs and all evils ever invented rolled into one.

"Nothing has more of heaven's fire or the fire of hell than a kiss," he said. "Great God, deliver us from the kissing devil."

Watching a boy eat, it is hard to imagine that so small an event as a love affair will ever effect his appetite.

"JOKERBILL" SLAIN BY THE GOVERNOR

INNOCENT LOOKING MEASURE FRAMED FOR BEGG'S

COMMISSION EVASION SOUGHT

Traction Magnate Sought to Slip Through Law Exempting Him From Supervision Law

MADISON, Wis., July 3.—Gov. Davidson has vetoed bill No. 1,029, a rather harmless looking bill of three lines which provided that no statute passed by the legislature should affect any suit commenced or pending at the time of the act going into effect. While the bill appears to be harmless and to have no other purpose than to prevent the passage of the laws to affect pending litigation, yet the people most active in urging its passage were the representatives of the Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light company and their intent appears to have been to circumvent the workings of the new law to prevent the paralleling of railroad lines without the consent of the railroad commission.

Veto Blocks Beggs
The specific objection of the Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light company to the law prohibiting one road from paralleling another seems to have been in the effect that the law will have upon John I. Beggs' effort to crush the Milwaukee Northern, the new interurban line running from Milwaukee north to Sheboygan and Fond du Lac.

The governor says that it appears to have been the intent of those who were so concerned about the passage of the bill that it should prevent the parallel line bill (No. 1568) from applying to condemnation proceedings.

Law Enforces Only Old Statutes
The governor also names about a dozen laws which could be circumvented if bill No. 1,029, had been signed. Among other reasons the governor says: "The bill, though short, is yet big enough with probabilities for mischief." He says that if it had become a law the courts would have been left to apply as best they could the old statutes instead of the new statutes. He says that much of the litigation which might be commenced before an act went into effect might drag along for months before the settlement, and thus this bill would enforce the old statutes instead of the new.

CONGRESS OFFARMERS

Announcement is made from the secretary's office of the Farmers' National congress of the forthcoming convention of the organization to be held at Oklahoma City, Okla., commencing October 17. W. L. Ames, Oregon, Wis., is treasurer of the congress.

Already delegates are being appointed in the various states of the union to attend the annual convention. Last year it was held at Rock Island, Ill., and was the most successful in many years. The congress is the greatest organization of its kind in the country and covers the entire United States, delegates attending from every state and territory in the country. The object of the congress is to help the development of national agriculture, by legislation and through the lectures of prominent agriculturists who are secured to speak at the meetings. The immense amount of good which has already been accomplished by the organization speaks alone for the success of the congress.

A great many attended last year's sessions from Wisconsin, and it is assured that many delegates will attend this year.
